COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This is a comprehensive English course of literature, composition, and language, including listening and speaking. Students will read a wide variety of literary forms including short stories, nonfiction, poetry, drama, novels, and spoken and visual texts. This course also focuses on the writing process through response to literature, creative writing, and connections to real-life situations and problem-solving. The study of language targets usage, mechanics, and strategies for vocabulary development integrated into literature and composition components. In addition, the course will teach grammatical concepts and applications. Students will review punctuation, capitalization, spelling, and usage as well as work on logical thinking and various modes of composition, including the research paper.

COURSE GOALS/OBJECTIVES:

- Read, examine, and analyze various subgenres of literature (fiction and nonfiction stories, drama, and poetry) and informative texts.
- Determine central themes of text and provide textual evidence to support their findings.
- Analyze and identify plot structure, character development, and author's purpose.
- Assess and revise essays to assure adequate form and development to improve sentences, and to assure standard punctuation, capitalization, usage, spelling, and transitions.
- Create writing which communicates effectively.
- Determine sentence correctness for misplaced modifiers, faulty parallel structure, unnecessary shifts, wordiness, ineffective diction, subject-verb agreement, comma splices, run-on sentences, and fragments.
- Evaluate data and library resource materials to prepare a formal research paper using correct Modern Language Association (MLA) documentation.

Students are required to have a 2-inch binder, notebook paper, and 5-tab dividers for class for class.

HOMEWORK/ CLASS ASSIGNMENTS

Homework is an essential part of the school program. Teachers assign homework to provide extra practice and to encourage further learning thereby reinforcing academic progress. It is recommended that all students keep a "HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENT JOURNAL." Students ARE Allowed to make-up missing assignments and Exams with an excused absence. Make-Up assignments must be turned in by the date assigned by the teacher. Late assignments will not be accepted, and the student will receive a "0".

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

If administration finds that a student is caught cheating, plagiarizing, and/or misrepresenting work, a "0" will be issued for the work in question. Such student will be placed on a probationary contract which states that the student will be expelled if a second offense arises.

GRADING POLICY:

Tests, quizzes, student participation, classwork, homework, reports, and assignments will all be applied to the student's final grade for the quarter. Students will receive a minimum of nine (9) grades per quarter/marketing period. Tests are announced in advance and posted on the portal. Study guides are provided for each test and reviewed in class as well as posted on the portal.

WEIGHT: Tests: 2 Grades; Quizzes: 1 Grade; Participation: 1 Grade per quarter; Classwork: 1 Weekly Average Grade; Homework: 1 Weekly Average grade; Midterm Exam: 3 Grades averaged into 2nd quarter grade; Final Exam: 3 Grades averaged into 4th quarter grade.

INTERIM REPORTS:

Interim reports will be issued midway through each quarter only for students who are NOT making adequate progress.

REPORT CARDS:

Report cards will be issued every nine weeks for a total of 4 quarterly report cards per academic year. The Report Card reflects a student's grade in a subject area for that quarter as well as a quarterly GPA. The Midterm exam grade is averaged into the 2nd Quarter Grade. The Final exam grade is averaged into the 4th Quarter Grade. The Final Grade is the average of all 4 Quarters.

MLA FORMAT

All reports submitted for this course should be headed in standard MLA Format. Students will learn MLA format in this course and will be expected to use it throughout the year. All reports should use the heading example as shown below:
